

Product data sheet

Cable inlet WG 800

| Reference number                                                                                                                                                                     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 893-1                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Cable inlet(spare part)for splashproof devices WG 800 and special devicesVersion:PG 16 thread + screwMaterial:thermoplastic |

IP Degree of protection IP44 is ensured.