

Product data sheet

Cable inlet WG 800

| Reference number                                                                                                                                                                      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 893-2                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Cable inlet(spare part)for splashproof devices WG 800 and special devicesVersion:thread + screw M 20 x 1.5Material:thermoplastic |

Degree of protection IP44 is ensured.